It will premiere on WGTE HD on Friday, February 10 at 8:30 p.m. Following the premiere on television, it will also be on our website www.wgte.org.

To The Point with Doni Miller is a public affairs show produced by WGTE Public Media that airs on the last three Fridays of every month. This program explores issues facing the community and challenges viewers to explore these issues through a different lens. It is not always easy to see a way through the challenges we face, but solutions come with understanding and education.

“This is one of the most exciting and challenging times in the history of our country. Change is happening everywhere, in politics, in the way we educate and influence our children, in the way we communicate and in the way we view and express our humanity.” states host, Doni Miller “To be given the opportunity to produce this show that has the intention of bringing these matters forward in an unflinching and dignified manner is one way to help develop solutions to what ails us. That’s what we will do that’s a bit different than other; we will talk about solutions. Being able to do this at WGTN with its impeccable reputation for great work makes it the perfect place for this type of programming.”

Executive Producer Ray Miller states "For many years WGTE has provided a 'voice' to educate, inform and engage our community. This new weekly program will offer a unique and creative way to express timely important topics, issues, concerns, and pertinent content that will allow us to stay connected with our audience. Our intent of To The Point is to utilize Doni Miller's experience and expertise to have thought-provoking critical community conversations."

To The Point with Doni Miller is the newest public affairs show. Other WGTE HD programs include Toledo Stories, Business | Life 360 with Kristi K. and WGTE Presents.
