WGTE Public Media and Good Grief of Northwest Ohio presents

"Let's Get Better at Grief"

A candid and educational exploration of the universal, yet individual experience of grief.

WHEN:	November 18, 2020 at 8:00 a.m.
WHERE:	Virtual
COST:	Free for the general public, $30 to earn CEUs
REGISTER:	events.idonate.com/grief

This event will include:

- 8:00 a.m. - Virtual Screening of the documentary Speaking Grief
- 9:15 a.m. - Remarks from local experts in the field of Grief
- 10:00 a.m. - Livestream Panel Discussion and Q & A with local experts

Speakers include:

Dorothy Mockensturm - Managing Director, Good Grief of Northwest Ohio
Shana Sadoski - Program Director, Good Grief of Northwest Ohio
Rickisha Lloyd, BA (Psych/Sociology), MS – Therapist
Sister Rachel Nijakowski - Psychologist and Executive Director, The Sophia Center
Dr. Colleen Olszewski - MD Pediatrics, Promedica

This documentary and discussion explores the experience of losing someone in a death- and grief-avoidant society. Participants will be encouraged to re-think their ideas of what supporting a grieving person looks like, and that grief is a problem that needs to be "fixed."

This event is open to the public and is also eligible for CEUs:

- Program approved by Ohio Counselor, Social Worker and Marriage and Family Therapist Board for 3 CEUs, approval #MCST11202122
- 3.0 CEUs for Educators
- 3.0 CEUs for Funeral Directors – Program Oe-002736

At point of registration, please indicate your interest in CEUs and you will be contacted prior to the event about the $30 fee required to process your credits and receive CEU certificate.

Registration is required by 5:00 p.m. on November 15, 2020.

To register, go to: events.idonate.com/grief.
